617

reception by any station and received by means of the licensee's apparatus.

9. The Licensee shall indemnify the Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore against all actions, claims and demands which may be brought or made by any person, body corporate or company in respect of any injury arising from any acts licnesed or permitted by the license.

10. This license only permits the establishment, maintenanace or working of wireless apparatus in Mysore State and does not permit or authorise such apparatus to be established, maintained or worked outside the State.

11. The licensee must maintain a record of the places at which demonstrations of the licensed apparatus are given and on demand by any officer duly authorised by the Director of Industries and Commerce this record must be produced for inspection and the whereabouts of this license and the licensed apparatus must be furnished.

12. No permission is hereby conveyed to do any act which is (a) an infringement of the copyright which may exist in the Broadcast matter received or (b) contrary to any rule made by a competent authority regulating musical or other performances or noise in the area in which the apparatus is established.

No. L. 2068—Ml. 70-38-16, dated Bangalore, 7th September 1938.

In exercise of the powers vested in them unde Sections 20 (2) and 106 (2) (a) of the Minor Municipalities Act 1933, the Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore are pleased to issue the accompanying rules for regulating the interpellation of the President by the Municipal Councillors on matters connected with the Municipal Administration.

By Order,

P. H. KRISHNA RAO,
Secretary to Government,
Local Self-Government Department.

RULES.

Subject to the conditions and restrictions contained in the following rules, any Councillor may ask questions on any matters connected with the Municipal Administration.

2. No member shall be allowed to send up more than two questions for any ordinary monthly meeting of the Council. No questions shall be permitted at Special or Adjourned meetings.

3. (i) No question shall be asked unless it complies with the following conditions, namely :—

(a) it shall be so framed as to be merely a request for information ;

(b) it shall not be of excessive length ;

(c) it shall not contain arguments, inferences, ironical expressions, or defamatory statements nor shall it refer to the conduct or character of persons except in their official or public capacity.

(d) it shall not ask for an expression of an opinion or the solution of hypothetical proposition ; and

(e) if a question contains a statement, the member asking it must make himself responsible for the accuracy of the statements.

(ii) (a) When any question is not framed in accordance with the above rule, the President may either himself amend it in such a way as to render it admissible and ask the member if he accepts the amendment or may cause it to be returned to the member concerned for the purpose of amendment ;

(b) if the member does not, within such time as the President may fix in this behalf, re-submit the question duly amended or intimate his acceptance of the President's amendment, the question shall be deemed to have been withdrawn.

4. The President may disallow any question giving reasons therefor.

5. No discussion in Council shall be permitted in respect of any order of the President under Rule 3 or under Rule 4.

6. The Councillor wishing to put any question shall send it at least seven clear days before the date fixed for the meeting to the President.

7. The President, may, if he thinks fit, allow a question in any case with shorter notice than seven clear days and may in any case, require a longer notice, if he thinks fit or extend, if necessary, the time for answering a question.

8. All questions which are allowed by the President shall be typed or cyclostyled and copies thereof shall be placed on the Council table at least half an hour before the meeting.

9. The President shall call the name of each interpellator and ask him to read out his question. After the question is read, the President will give the answer.

10. If a Councillor who has given notice of a question is absent at the time when the question is taken up, the President may direct that the question may be considered as withdrawn by the interpellator, unless any other Councillor present at the meeting reads it as his own, subject to the proviso contained in Rule 3 (e).

11. The interpellations shall be taken up before the ordinary business on the agenda commences.

12. Any Councillor may put a supplementary question for the purpose of further elucidating any matter regarding which an answer has been given. But the President shall disallow any supplementary question, if, in his opinion, it cannot be answered satisfactorily on the spur of the moment without referring to records.

13. No discussion shall be permitted in respect of an answer given to a question asked under these rules.

Printed by the Superintendent at the Government Press, Bangalore.